DHSutherland Welcomes Matt Pentland into Senior Technical Sales

The DHSutherland team has added Matt Pentland as Senior Technical Salesperson; expanding the composite material & process expertise that the team brings to our partners. Matt draws on the knowledge gained from over 10 years of experience at well-respected companies such as Toray Composite Materials America & Heatcon Composite Systems, where he served leading aerospace companies across both OEM & MRO parts of the industry.

President, Andrew Crouse shared, "We are very excited to have Matt join our team. His unique skillset of both OEM & MRO parts of the aerospace industry will help us to serve a broader range of our advanced composite customer's needs. With Matt stepping into the role in the Eastern US, he'll bring tremendous value to the DHSutherland network of customer & supply partners."
